THE SPY-SYSTEM AT WASHINGTON.

Severe Arraignment of the Grand Army of the Republic—The Affair an Office-holder-age Arrangement—Examples of its Doings.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.

To the Editor of the World:

SIR—Another removal under the direct action of the Loyal League and Grand Army of the Republic Radical organizations, has just taken place here, we are told, no less damning in its circumstances than that of Mr. Toury for marrying Annie Surratt, reported yesterday, and in which the notorious General John A. Logan is not less implicated. Martin Renchase has thus been displaced as a messenger in the Sixth Auditor's Office, for the damning offence of suffering his wife to rent a room in his house to an ex-Confederate officer to assist her in feeding and clothing her family, this officer having been, in the year before the war, a friend to every member of her household, both officially and personally.

Martin Renchase is an Irish Catholic, and was first drawn into the public service as door-keeper of the White House by President Jackson, during the latter part of his administration. He served in that capacity for the remainder of the term of President Jackson, and for his fidelity to duty was continued by Presidents Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, and Polk. Towards the termination of Polk's administration he was, however, displaced for some particular favorite. During Taylor's administration and that of Fillmore he was made a messenger in the War Department, where he continued, giving entire satisfaction, until the close of President Lincon's administration, Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, being his fast friend. He was now transferred from the War Department to the Sixth Auditor's Office in the Post office Department, receiving his new appointment as messenger from the hands of Mr. Chandler, the Assistant-Secretary of the Treasury; and here he has remained, giving entire satisfaction to Mr. Hazlett and the whole division. With these antecedents he has been notified, nevertheless, that his services are dispensed with, and a negro installed in his place! The offence on the part of his wife in letting a room in his house to an old friend, who happened to be a Southern man, was not to be passed unavenged by General Logan and the Grand Army, and again the sanctuary of private life is invaded at the instigation of a spy and informer.

It may be of consequence also to state that Martin Renchase was the first head-centre of the Fenian organization in the City of Washington, and is still an active member of that body, and that his oldest son, a young man of more than ordinary culture and character, is at this very time occupying a confidential position connected with the headquarters of the organization in New York. On the other hand, the spy and informer against him with the Loyal Leagues and the Grand Army of John A. Logan, is an Englishman, a Confederate deserter, and a discarded lover of Renchase's daughter, who, through his hatred to the Fenians as an Englishman and his desire for revenge as a rejected suitor, found fitting employment for his base nature in betraying the rites of hospitality, and in making slanderous representations both as to Renbcase and as to the ex-Confederate officer renting a room in the house.

The policy initiated by Sumner and Grant in respect to the Alabama claims and the British government, for the purpose of winning over the Irish to the support of the Radical party this fall, as has been boldly avowed by the Radical press and embraced in their resolutions upon the renomination of Geary as Governor of Pennsylvania, is thus shown to be the veriest trick and fraud imaginable; and if the Irish Catholics suffer themselves to be caught by the miserable pretence, they will be left without a friend in the United States—the North, South, East and West—to deplore doom that surely awaits them after becoming thus enemies. Indeed, they will find that every party in the land and every element of population, as well as every religious sectary, will stand equally indifferent to their fate. While the Radical journals are loudly mouthing the bellowing speech of Charles Sumner on the Alabama claims, throwing dust in the eyes of the Fenians and Irish Catholics, this is the way that both the Fenians and the Irish Catholics are treated in this government by this pretended anti-British party. This is the way that the negro is substituted and to be substituted in the place of the Fenian, and this is the way that a Catholic is to be proscribed for marrying a Catholic. General O'Neill may lead his people into the trap set for them if he pleases and they are fools enough to follow him into the snare, but the end to him and them will be no less speedy, certain and sure—the loss of their civil, political, and religious rights in America.

Yours truly,
JOHN TYLER, JR.

A ROMANTIC CAREER—A SHORT BIOGRAPH OF A SUICIDE.

No more instructive lesson could be given of the certain result of a misspent life than is contained in the following brief recital of the career of a man of fine and cultivated intellect, which raised him to honorable position among his fellows, only to sink to degradation and destruction beneath the hand of the demon of drink. The melancholy death of Dr. Thomas Dugan, at the Hospital of the Sisters, in Hoboken, N. J., is fresh in the minds of our readers.

Less than fifty years ago Thos. Dugan first saw the light in the westernmost province of Ireland. Whether it was the wild rural scenery surrounding his youth which imbued him with that roving propensity which subsequently characterized him, is a question for the casuist. At the age of fourteen he was sent by his father to Trinity College, Dublin, to complete his classical studies. Throughout his collegiate course he is said to have distinguished himself by surpassing genius. At the age of twenty he was graduated with honor, and chose the medical profession. Leaving Ireland for Edinburg, and having there received his diploma, he went to Paris in order to perfect his professional studies. The same high qualifications were here apparent, and after three years he left the institution with another diploma. He soon returned to the home of his parents, but his excitable temperament drove him again from his home in a moment of passion, never more to behold the faces of those who were dearest to him in life, or to see his native town. He soon afterwards joined the British army, as surgeon to the Eighty-eight Irish Regiment, a body of men chosen from his own western province, and famous in history as the "Connaught Rangers" in many a daring exploit. By his attention and friendly zeal Dugan endeared himself to all who knew him.

In a short time came the Crimean war, when it was the lot of the 88th to be hurried to the front, and at the battles of Inkerman, Balaklava and Alma, it is said, no voice was more inspiring to the Irish legions than his. And when the enemy had fled the field, and the wounded lay stretched on the plain, their surgeon was seen among them devoting himself to their wants, and providing for their safety. At the close of that memorable war he received a gold medal as a token of the high esteem in which he was held. After a few months he was sent to India, where he received his appointment from the then Gen. Napier, as the chief surgeon of the Irish soldiery in India. He was present at many campaigns there, and never was known to shrink from duty. His stay in India was comparatively short, and he sought and received his discharge. His parting with the men whose affection and esteem he had so well deserved was signalized by loud expressions of sorrow and prayers for his lasting welfare by his warm hearted fellow country men. He returned to London, whence he soon came to America, and married the daughter of a rich merchant. After some time dissensions arose between them, and the husband sought oblivion in the bottle from the afflictions that had come upon him, and sank lower and lower in the stifling grasp of dissipation, until his wife and son sought a refuge with her father who subsequently died, and the injured wife repaired to Canada, where she now resides, and where she has buried her child. Charity to the dead forbids us to further unfold the disasters which dimmed the evening of Dugan's life. Suffice it to say that his insatiable appetite for drink brought upon his once powerful frame all the pains that wait upon the damned, and at length he marched unbidden into the presence of the great Arbiter of all deeds, and his body was consigned to a pauper's tomb.—Jersey City Evening Times.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.
Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.
THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CANTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.
As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:
BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.

ROBERT SOUTTER, OF GRANVILLE COUNTY, realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townesville, in this County.
This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. K. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertiliser, and is now very promising.
Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1869.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We repeat what has been said a thousand times, in way of advice and instruction to those who write for newspapers, that they should write on but one side of the sheet, make their articles as short as possible, and try to write legibly. Especially remember to write on but one side of the sheet, if you wish your productions to have the least chance of appearing in print.

WHO IS GOVERNOR, CEBE, BILLY HOLDEN OR CHARLEY HORNER?

To use the phrase of Jack Rice, "the business is," it is hard to tell who is Governor. Charley Horner, Grand Secretary of the Leagues, uses the gubernatorial prerogative in telegraphing to the Sheriff of Halifax, the pardon of a convicted felon, who was about to be hanged. Prima facie, Charley is Governor. But Cebe Harris occupies the Governor's Mansion. Prima facie, Cebe is Governor.

The charters of the North Carolina and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroads give to the Governor the right to appoint State proxies to cast the vote of the State in the meetings of these two corporations. In the late meeting of the Atlantic and North Carolina Road, the Governor appointed Judge Clarke State proxy. Judge Clarke's "loyalty" is no more to be questioned than Judge Cantwell's, yet Cebe forbade his acting. Cebe being a mighty man with a big red club, coerced the Judge, who is a man of slender frame and delicate constitution. Cebe actually defied the Governor, and, in the meeting, was recognized as State proxy against the "solemn protest" of Judge Clarke, acting for the Governor.

The North Carolina Railroad Company holds its annual meeting in Salisbury on the 8th of July. The Governor having called out the militia for Alamance and Jones counties to put down the defiers and contemners of the law, has determined to try what virtue there is in the civil arm of the law; accordingly he has ordered Billy Smith to "blow his horn" and call the defiant Cebe before the Supreme Court, by force of an injunction, and as Cebe defied Judge Clarke successfully to try him before five Judges instead of one.

The Governor has his case in good hands. Billy Smith can whip Cebe Harris any day. Nor will Cebe have any advantage of Billy before the Court, for Billy did not sign the "solemn protest." The Court can't throw the offensive language of "hitherto," &c., at Billy as they did at Mr. Moore.

It will ill become Judge Rodman, the old Quartermaster, or Judge Dick, the signer of the ordinance, to say "hitherto" Billy Smith "has been loyal," his cause cannot be prejudiced by any such extra judicial declaration.

How the Court will settle this perplexed and perplexing question we are not able to say. Certain it is that Cebe will recover cost, unless the Court reverse its decision lately made in the case of the Bench against the Bar in contempt. In this case Mr. B. F. Moore, Governor Bragg, and Ed. Graham Haywood, were adjudged to pay costs.—"The motion to discharge the rule (said the Court) is allowed, on payment of cost, a case having, in the judgment of the Court, been made out against the respondent, so as to call for a disavowal on his part. It is proper that he should pay the cost. He is not acquitted but excused." Why Mr. Willis Bagley was "excused" without cost, and Mr. Moore was "excused," but mulcted with cost, we are not able to see. The opinion and reasoning of the Court is not satisfactory on that point. Mr. Moore is made to pay cost, because a case is made out against him which required a disavowal on his part. The same must be said of Mr. Bagley. A disavowal was required and actually made on his part. Yet he is "excused" without cost.

But that question is settled to the lasting detriment and disgrace of the Court for having raised it. We say Cebe will recover cost, or be "excused" from cost, as Bagley was—if he don't undertake to bully and brow beat the Court, as Cape Cod Ashley, Governor Holden and Auditor Adams did. We tell Cebe it won't do to "cuss" before Chief Justice Pearson as the Governor did—nor to hold up his big red stick before the Court as he did before us, at the bloodless battle of Davie street. Nor to put on an air of defiance as Adams did, or he may find his heavy carcas and big bludgeon piled up on the floor of the rotunda as were the Auditors papers. Besides Judge Rodman is not afraid; he has sentenced to be shot an hundred men, any one of whom was equal to Cebe. We admonish Cebe to put on meekness, and put aside his big stick before the Court, if he expects to be "excused." He can certainly make out a "case in the opinion of the Court," for he occupies the Governor's Palace, and by act of the Assembly was appointed proxy for the State.

McKESSON, WALKER, WILSON AND PATTERSON.

A correspondent from Charlotteville Va., speaks in high praise of our young friends Charles F. McKesson, F. D. Walker, Samuel Patterson and George Wilson. We learn there are forty-three students at the University of Virginia from North Carolina, twenty seven from Texas, and a goodly number from all the Southern States. If we had a President for our University and Professors, such as Phillips, Fetter and the old corps were, Walker, McKesson, Patterson, Wilson, and the forty-three, with many of the twenty seven from Texas, would be at our University, instead of the University of Virginia. Such scrubs and vagrants in literature as Pool, Brewer and Patrick, may rise by the bellows blowing of Bodman, Holden and Ashley, but like yeast they will rise only to fall again. We hope some one of the forty three will give us an account of the commencement exercises. The names and counties of the forty-three from North Carolina as well as the names and number from each of the Southern States.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, June 29th, 1869.

Editor of the Sentinel: Your noble State should be proud of her young men now at this University, who bid fair to be ranked among the future great men of the nation. We have given them all a cordial welcome to our State. Our much esteemed good friend, Charles F. McKesson, being elected orator to deliver the address on the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson, spoke with charms of eloquence and graces of oratory, to an immense crowd, by which he won many additional friends. He is a great favorite of the students, highly esteemed by the Professors, and admired by all.

Other noble youths are here, also, from your State. F. D. Walker, from Wilmington, Samuel Patterson, of Caldwell, and George Wilson, of Charlotte, and others too numerous to mention in this hurried note, all young men of character and intellect. Texas, too, is nobly represented by Mavric, and others. We have no apprehensions for the bright future of our old University.

We cannot, we will not, follow in the footsteps of your old mother, North Carolina. Be assured the white people of Virginia are white. We will elect Walker by 20,000. We have a large comoany of gay, intelligent and intellectual people from all parts of the South.

North Carolina is well represented in the number and character of the students, as well as in the grace and beauty of her daughters, who are in attendance on commencement. We anticipate much good speaking to-night. Os to-morrow we will hear Ex-Gov. Low, of Maryland.

Yours,
RICHARD.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN is the name of a new paper, issued the first day of this month, at Elizabeth City. It is Republican in politics, is large and well printed. The Editor and Proprietor, Palemon John, formerly Editor of a paper at Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, says, in his salutatory, that it is his purpose to make North Carolina his future home, and he comes to lend his aid in restoring tranquility and harmony, &c. If he sticks to these professions, he may wield an influence for good, but if he commences abusing and misrepresenting our most intelligent and reliable citizens, without knowing more of them than that they are not of his party, as he has done in this his first number in regard to the Protesting Lawyers, his influence will be anything but salutary in "restoring tranquility and harmony" among those with whom he has made his future home.

RIOTOUS DEMONSTRATIONS IN PETERSBURG—THE NEGROES READY FOR A ROW.

At the conclusion of Van Wyck's speech, the whites, still under the impression that a discussion was to take place, called loudly for "Stringfellow," "Gregory," "Lyon," "Graves," and continued their calls for many minutes. In the meantime, a Radical speaker had arisen, but the cries for a Conservative speaker still continued.

The voice of this Radical speaker could not be well heard, but he was seen to gesticulate very wildly and excitedly. From the midst of the crowd of negroes was heard the cry, "Fall in!" and a rush was made towards the whites. This immediately followed a slight dispute between an unknown white man and a negro, and the disorder and mad confusion that followed cannot be described.

A serious riot was threatened, and hundreds ran hurriedly from the Square, escaping to the street through the narrow front gates, or jumping over the iron railing down to the pavement.

The negroes struck sundry blows at the white men, whom they outnumbered about twenty to one; threw rocks and brandished sticks; crying at the same time in wild and angry voices, "Put 'em out." The whites, to avoid any actual difficulty, mostly left the ground, not even attempting, except in few instances, to take part in the threatened riot.

Not a pistol was fired or even drawn that we could hear of, though for half an hour the meeting was interrupted, and nothing but the angry voices of the negroes could be heard. Hundreds of negroes escaped over the wall in the rear of the Court House, and left the ground not to return.

Several gentlemen were injured—one having both ankles sprained by jumping over the railing; others by being struck with sticks or fists, and being pushed down. An infuriated crowd of negroes, two or three hundred strong, rushed out into the street in pursuit of a white man, crying "Kill him! kill him!"

In front of this office they broke to pieces a large table, ten or fifteen feet in length, and carried the fragments back on the Square to be used as clubs in case of emergency.

Order was subsequently restored, and the speaking went on.

This is the first scene of the kind that has been witnessed in Petersburg, and, providentially, a bloody riot was probably prevented. The animus of the negro and those whom he so blindly follows is plainly seen, and deplorable results may yet ensue before the election is over unless wiser and calmer counsels prevail. At the meeting in front of Jarratt's the other night the negroes were very noisy and insulting, but the whites forbore, and no disturbance occurred.

In whatever light it may be viewed, the occurrence of last night is greatly to be regretted, and for the sake of this community—for the sake of good order—we hope nothing of the kind will happen again.

The Senate of the Fenian Brotherhood is in session in Chicago. It is understood that they are preparing a programme of action on the Alabama claims as far as they effect the Irish question.

From the Wilmington Journal.

THE BENCH AND THE BAR.

There is no plainer duty than that resting upon us as citizens to foster feelings of reverence and respect for the Judiciary of the State. We should be slow to condemn, slow to criticise the conduct of those to whom has been referred the settlement of all disputes. No greater evil can befall a people than for them to have or to think they have a weak, or partizan, or corrupt Judiciary. The quick result of such an evil is a reluctance to appeal to the Courts, a greater willingness to seek redress by private and violent means, to which men are already too prone. But no matter how strongly we may be impressed with these views it is apparent to us, as it must be to every one, there may be times when it may be both proper and necessary to condemn in the severest terms the action of individuals holding judicial positions, when by their actions for instance, themselves or their office must fall into contempt and disrepute. In such case the individual is manifestly the proper subject for animadversion. In our opinion the Judges of the Supreme Court during the last Presidential campaign presented just this case. One or more of them had taken an active part in political matters, a thing plainly wrong in itself and unheard of in North Carolina from the Revolution to that time. Was this to be submitted to in silence, and the people thereby allowed to think they had a partizan Court, and that partizan displays were in keeping with the dignity and purity of the judicial ermine? If so, farewell to all respect and veneration for the Court or for the Judges as expounders of the law, as they would at once become beloved or hated simply as party leaders.—Such a course was not to be thought of.—Who, then, so proper to give the cry of alarm; who so proper to warm both Court and people of the danger as the members of the Bar, these same maligned lawyers, whom all abuse, in whom all implicitly confide, to whom all fly in time of trouble; that same class of men who, standing perpetual sentinels upon the watch-towers, have in all ages and in all countries been the first to raise the alarm when the rights and liberties of the people were about to be attacked? Who so fit to be heard by both Court and people as they who were at once officers of the Court and a part of the people?

We believe, therefore, the members of the Bar were the right men in the right place, in their character as protesters, and we can see nothing in their protest, either in manner or matter, untrue or unworthy, or improper on so solemn an occasion, to be said to either Court or people. It was possible not to have been expected that men whose party badges and party colors, not even their ample judicial robes could cover, would allow such a protest from such a source to pass unnoticed. At any rate, if such expectation was indulged in, the event, as our readers know, has not justified it, for they have had placed before them the rule of court served upon Mr. Moore, the first of the protesters, his answer put in under oath and the decision of the Court.

We have refrained from expressing any opinion in this matter until the decision of the Court was made known. We deem it to be our duty now, however, to say that the more we reflect upon the action of the Court, and the reasons given therefor, the less we are satisfied therewith. The gist of the decision is that the protest is a libelous paper, but that, as Mr. Moore, swears he intended no contempt of Court in signing and publishing it, he is excused therefor by the Court. The Court declares in many words that Mr. Moore is not acquitted, but is excused. The learned Chief Justice, delivering the opinion of the Court, complains that the protest "was drafted with all the adroitness of a skillful lawyer." If this be indeed true Greek has met Greek, and well met him too. The Chief Justice says:

"The only allegation of fact on which this 'solemn protest' rests is that 'the Judges, singly or en masse did rush into the mad contest of politics under the excitement of drums and flags.'

"Is this allegation of fact true or is it false? There is no pretence that it is true. It is said this is a figure of speech suggested by something that was expected to occur, but never did occur; so the allegation of fact is false and the inference drawn from it is also false.

"In our judgment the paper is libelous and 'doth tend to impair the respect due to the authority of the Court.'"

Is there nothing of the adroitness of a skillful lawyer in seeming to consider the gravamen of the evil example to be rebuked by the protest to lie in the "drums and flags." Does not his Honor know it was announced in the newspapers that a public political partizan demonstration or mass meeting would take place in Raleigh—(in those some papers by means of which the Court declared they had legal cognizance of the protest)—and that several Judges of the Supreme Court would take prominent parts therein, and that, too, "under the excitement of drums and flags," and not one of these Judges thus designated ever disavowed or denied the statement. It will not do to say they were not obliged to notice a newspaper article, as the Court have declared a newspaper publication sufficient information for the Court to set upon.—Why did they not come to that Raleigh Mass Meeting, as it was said they would do. Were they sick, absent from home, or did the trains break down? The people know not, and like Mr. Moore's intent in publishing the protest, their reasons can be ascertained only upon oath of the parties themselves. Is there none of the adroitness of the skillful lawyer in appealing to the popular prejudice, that skillful lawyers can and do make the worse appear the better reason, in denying by innuendo the truth of a statement made under the sanction of an oath upon the Holy Bible by a man to whom that very Court profess to accord "high encomium for his ability, legal learning, integrity, devotion to the Constitution, unwavering love of the Union, and hitherto a most consistent and influential supporter of the Judicial tribunals of his country."

Does it show nothing of the adroitness of a skillful lawyer to interpret the expression to "rush into the mad contest of politics under the excitement of drums and flags" by the court to mean that the members of the court had gone literally with drums beating and flags flying, and by the vehemence of the denial of the incident attempt to create in the public mind the impression that the principle had been denied and that "no demonstrations of political partizanship by the Judges of the Supreme Court"—either with or without drums and flags, had taken place.

This kind of argument, if it may be so called, shows beyond cavil the adroitness of a skillful lawyer in the learned Judge, when it is remembered at what an opportune time his letter advocating the election of President Grant appeared during the last campaign, and to what an extent it was relied upon by the Radical party in North Carolina. Would it not have shown more of the fairness of a just judge and less of the adroitness of a skillful lawyer if his Honor, in stating "the only allegation of fact" in a paper written for the purpose of denying its truth, had stated it accurately and truthfully, and had omitted no words explaining and fixing the meaning of that "only allegation?" It requires not the skill of a lawyer to see that there is a material variance in the expression used by the protesters and that put into their mouths by the Court. The protesters say, "but never before have we seen the Judges of the Supreme Court, singly or en masse, moved from that becoming propriety so indispensable to secure the respect of the people, and, throwing aside the ermine, rush into the mad contest of politics under the excitement of drums and flags. Why did his Honor omit the words "throwing aside the ermine?" Was it because the use of them showed so plainly the figurative character of the expression, which his Honor chooses to call "the only allegation of fact," that there would have been palpably no ground to say "so the allegation of fact is false and the reference drawn from it is also false," and the Court would have stood convicted of the charge laid to its door in the protest.

If it be, as the Court declares, that the "only allegation of fact" in the protest, "stripped of the gaudy dress by which it is artfully disguised" is not true, and that it is not even pretended to be true, then is Mr. Moore guilty of contempt, and perjury and libel, or is insane. To say Mr. Moore is insane, or that when he signed and published the protest he did not know or intend the natural consequence of his act is, in the language of the Court, "simply ridiculous." If, however, the allegation of public demonstrations of political partizanship by the Judges of the Supreme Court be true, as, indeed, it is, then the protest is not a libel, and it is the truth and not Mr. Moore and his fellow-protesters that has brought the Court into contempt, and impaired the respect due the authority thereof. Mr. Moore must be indicted and convicted of libel before the solemn protest of the Bar will be thought devoid of truth, or members of the Court free from blame.

From the N. Y. Express, June 26 18.9.

ONE FRIENDS GONE.

The Tribune gives the National Intelligencer a kick at its death. Why,—except that this old and respected journal was not Radical or party Republican in its politics! The publication of the Intelligencer was commenced sixty nine years since, on the ruins of the Independent Gazetteer. It then belonged to Harrison Smith. In 1807 Joseph Gales secured an interest, and in 1810 Smith left, and Gales became sole proprietor, William Winston Seaton, his brother in-law, assisting. In January, 1813, the Intelligencer was issued daily, and has been ever since. For eight years Gales and Seaton were both editors and reporters. One of them attended the House and the other the Senate. So far from helping such a downfall or rejoicing over it, we confess that the loss of such a journal gives us sincere pain. We recall the names and presence of Gales and Seaton, when they were patriarchs of the Press of the Federal City, and their Register of Debates the highest possible authority for Public Debates. We see the venerable Jo. Gales at the reporters' desk, taking notes of Webster's great speech, in a short-hand of his own, in reply to Hayne, though he had given up the general work of reporting years before. We see him as he appeared once of twice reporting a case of National importance in the Supreme Court. We see him at his editorial desk writing one of those ponderous editorials on international law or domestic politics which contained all that was wise in learning, able in statesmanship and eloquent in expression. Among his visitors in our day, were men like Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Rives and Preston, Benton and Porter, of La., Poindexter of Miss., and Hugh White and Grundy, of Tenn., honest John Davis, of Mass., and Cass, of Michigan. Other great names loom up before us. Silas Wright, of New York, Taney, in full career as the successor of John Marshall as chief upon the bench of the Supreme Court after his rejection as Secretary of the Treasury by the Senate, with Judge McLane upon one side and Judge Wayne upon the other. John Quincy Adams had left the Presidency for a literally ten years' fight on the floor of the House, where he received his death stroke, and finally expired in the Speaker's room. His strong mind but in firm body, his wonderful intelligence and quickness of temper, are all associated with the great journal of Washington, whose editors had led off in the support of his administration. But we lack space and time to go over all this, even if it were interesting to the busy, and, in many respects, different, readers of this period of our history.

Great questions were discussed then as since. The removal of the Deposits and Specie Circular; the division of the surplus Revenue among the States; Tariffs, which threatened to split the Union, on Protection and Free Trade; the recommendation to Congress of Reprisals against France; the $3,000,000 Fortification Bill lost in the Senate; the Expunging Resolutions drawn up by Clay, and fought inch by inch, and hand to hand, and session after session by Benton; the final defacement of the old Journal, with black lines enclosing these words—"Expunged by order of the Senate, this 16th day of January, 1837."

All these questions, with those coming later, under Van Buren, and Harrison, and Polk—such as the Sub Treasury, the Right of Petition, the incipient Anti Slavery Debates, the Annexation of Texas, the New Jersey Broad Seal, the rapture between Tyler and the Whigs, the Oregon strife, the Seminole and Mexican wars, the early Kansas and Nebraska fights—rise up before us as events of yesterday, in connection with the old National Intelligencer. Mr. Gales was in every respect the peer, as a writer, of any man in Congress. When death took him from his post, after half a century of hard labor, the boundless generosity of his life made him poor, while the wretched credit system had left upon the books nearly $400,000 due from unpaid subscriptions.

Mr. Seaton, too, left no property for the same cause. He was twelve years Mayor of the Federal city, and a man in all his public and private life to love and respect. The reunions at his dwelling are "a green spot in memory's waste." We recall them when Clay and Webster, Preston and Porter, and others, were the bright and shining lights of the old Whig party. We recall one when Mangum, of N. C., presided over the United States Senate—when Webster adhering alone among the Whigs to John Tyler's Administration,—(out only that he might negotiate the great Washington or Ashburton and Webster treaty,) and when Mr. Seaton as a peace-maker, gave a reception to bring Webster and his alienated friends of the Senate together. The conclusion was most happy, and Webster, in his toast, a war more brilliant or ready than the n.

But all these men are dead, and now dies, full of years and full of honors, the old Journal, just edging upon three score and ten years, that contributed during their lives to make them illustrious. We confess to more than a common sorrow as we thus recall the past. A busier and more exciting, perhaps a more fruitful age, will succeed the one which has gone before; but time can produce no men more refined in manners, greater in wisdom, or truer in the instincts of a noble patriotism.

Sir Henry Rawlinson, who affects archæology, has satisfied himself, and is trying to satisfy other people, that Babylon is the site of the Garden of Eden. Moreover, he claims to have discovered public documents stored in Babylon which prove the fact, and which "give an exact geographical plat of the scene of man's first disobedience."

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1869.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

TO ADVERTISERS.—Please hand in your favors by noon, if you wish them to appear in the day's issue.

We publish our advertising rates, to-day, which are certainly moderate enough to meet the approbation of all who have any thing worth advertising.

THE weather at Raleigh, N. C., as indicated by the Thermometer at the office of the North Carolina Land Company, Tucker Hall, Friday, July 2nd:

9 A. M., 79.	3 P. M., 84.
12 M., 81.

Tuesday, June 29:

9 A. M., 85.	3 P. M., 92.
12 M., 89.	6 P. M., 91.

Herald Building, N. Y., Friday, July 29th:

9 A. M., 78.	3 P. M., 87.
12 M., 85.	6 P. M., 86.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call special attention to the advertisement of the North Carolina Home Fire Insurance Company.

Wines, Brandies, Vinegar, and many other things usually found at a first class Grocery, at G. T. Stronach's.

Ice Cream, and numerous other good things, at N. S. Mosely, No. 15 Fayetteville Street.

Important Sale, R. C. Badger.

N. J. Riddick, Clerk U. S. Circuit Court, and S. T. Carrow, U. S. Marshal, call attention to the law in regard to the payment of Cost- and Fees.

PERSONAL.—We see that Gen. Bryan Grimes, is in the city. This gallant gentleman, has a host of warm friends and admirers here, who will be delighted to grasp his hand.

OVER TAXES.—The Board of Commissioners, last night, instructed the Mayor to call a meeting at an early day, of those who claim to be over-assessed in their city taxables, for the purpose, we presume, of properly adjusting the same.

THE MEMBERS of the Raleigh Building and Loan Association, and others friendly to, or feeling an interest in, the success of the enterprise, will bear in mind that a business meeting is advertised to be held at the Court House, to-night.

THANKS.—We return our thanks to our friend, B. W. Green, for a mess of roasting ears, from his fine farm lying south of the city.

Mr. Green has exhibited to us cotton blooms that had fallen off the boll, which shows they had blown at least as early as the 28th June.

He also exhibitsd a cotton stalk two feet six and a half inches high. We hear from others that his crop is one of the most promising in the county.

We account for this prosperous state of affairs, from the fact that he got married not very long since, after some years experience of old bachelorhood.

COMMENCEMENT.—The commencement at Kittrells Springs Female College came off Tuesday and Wednesday of the present week. We shall give a more extended notice of the occasion to-morrow.

COLLAR YOUR CANINES.—An order has been passed by the Board of Commissioners, that ten days be given dog owners to apply at the Mayor's Office for collars for their dogs, after which time all dogs in the city, not having this badge of citizenship, will be destroyed. We hope, for the sake of nocturnal quiet, the sales of collars will be limited.

STILL GOING IT.—Our city authorities are still bent on improvement. The latest item, noteworthy, in this direction, is the removal of the lamp post from the front of the Episcopal Church and placing it at the corner opposite "Hon." Jeemes Harris' new residence.

Now, we have no objection to Jim Harris having as much light as the city authorities may be disposed to give him, but we do think that they might have let the lamp remain in front of the Church. In case evening services should be held at the Church, the lamp would be a convenience hardly to be dispensed with.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met pursuant to adjournment. All the Justices present.

CASES ARGUED:

State vs. Hairston, Forsythe county. Attorney General for State; no Counsel for Defendant. This case involves the question whether whites and blacks can lawfully intermarry.

Young vs. McLean, Mecklenburg county. Wilson for Plaintiff; Bailey for Defendant.

Shuford vs. Ramsour, Catawba county. Bynum for Plaintiff; Bragg for Defendant.

State vs. Rheinhardt, Lincoln county. Attorney General for State; no Counsel for Defendant.

ADVERTISING.—On yesterday we published our advertising rates, which will be adhered to by us in future. These rates are but slightly raised above what they were in the Sentinel twelve months ago.—Some may think them rather high, but, if they will compare these rates with the price of type-setting alone, they will find that, with those who make frequent changes in their advertisements, the prices we charge will but little more than pay the compositor for setting the type. We intend to be as reasonable as possible with our advertising patrons, and we think the rates we have adopted, in view of our extensive circulation, and the class of readers among whom the Sentinel circulates, are sufficiently liberal.

A CORRECTION.—A report obtained currency in the papers, some time since, that the caterpillar had made its appearance in the vicinity of Tallahassee, Florida, and that among the crops ravaged was that of our former fellow-citizen, Col. J. J. Williams. A letter from Col. Williams to the Bainbridge Argus, denies the truth of the statement.

The Colonel says:

"On many hundred acres of cotton, that I have planted, I have not seen two stalks that have been in any way touched. I did see, several weeks ago, a single caterpillar that I thought to be the genuine cotton worm; but friends pronounce it to be simply the grass worm. The fly has been seen by several persons, but with such seasons as we are now having, little or no injury can be done by them. What is in store for us, later in the season, I am unable to say—but at the present our county never presented a brighter future for a good yield of corn and cotton."

The many friends of Col. Williams in this State will be glad to learn that the former rumor has turned out untrue.

KOSKOO, the great Liver Invigorator, Blood Purifier, and Renovator, prepared by Dr. J. J. Lawrence, the celebrated Physician and Chemist, is a SAFE, PLEASANT, and RELIABLE remedy, for the PREVENTION and CURE of the diseases caused by a TORPID LIVER, IMPURE BLOOD, DISORDERS of the KIDNEYS, or DEBILITY of the NERVOUS SYSTEM.

It REGULATES the secretions, ERADICATES all HUMORS or TAINTS, restores lost or wasted nervous power, and at the same time builds up and imparts tone and vigor to the whole system.

STATE NEWS.

MORE ROBBING.—We learn that on the same night the burglary was committed on Mr. Buckman's store, thieves broke into the carpentry shop of Mr. Cordon, stealing enough of his tools to set themselves up in business. Verily the times are evil, and men are worse than the times. If things keep on in this way, we shall not have enough left to pay taxes.—Eastern Intelligencer.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.—Mr. H. M. Bowden yesterday qualified before the Clerk of the Superior Court as a Notary Public for this city. Under the new appointments of Gov. Holden only three others have thus far qualified, viz: Messrs. A. B. Burr, W. A. Wilson and W. M. Harriss.—Wil. Journal.

BIT BY A MAD DOG.—A colored man in Newbern by the name of Isaac Whitford, was bitten by a dog about three weeks ago, and died on Tuesday of rabies. The most singular part of the affair is, that the dog never showed symptoms of madness.

MULES KILLED BY ELECTRICITY.—We learn that during a severe thunder storm, in this county, on Tuesday last, Mr. William Foster had two mules killed by electricity and one seriously damaged by the shock.—Mr. Foster is a poor man, and this inscrutable visitation leaves him without an animal for farm purposes.—Salisbury Examiner.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—We are informed that a destructive fire has been raging, for several days, in the woods, in the section of Leesburg, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. Fences, inclosing fields of promising corn, had been burned, but no dwellings had, up to last accounts, been consumed.—Wil. Star.

DROWNED.—A little girl, Peggy Starkey by name, fell into the Neuse river near Foster's wharf, yesterday afternoon, and drowned before any assistance could reach her.—Newbern Jour. of Com.

The Rev. Peter D. Guerrant died in Leaksville, a few days since, aged some 63 years. He was a good man.—Greensboro' Patriot.

MORE SOCIAL EQUALITY.—Solomon Hiatt, a gentleman of decided African proclivities, and Sallie Parks, white, were lodged in jail last Tuesday night, on charge of adultery.—Greensboro Patriot.

REMOVED.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce says: Wilkie, the man who lost his mule—or said he did—has been removed from the position of Jones county detective. Even Governor Holden could no longer gulp down the slanderous reports Wilkie was constantly making him concerning the people of Jones, notwithstanding the fact that the "Guv'n" capacity that way is somewhat marvellous.

The removal was made over a week ago, and the people of Jones are in ecstacies thereat.

THOSE HORSE THIEVES.—It will probably surprise parties in Newbern to learn that in the last two weeks three horse thieves have been captured in Jones County; but their astonishment will be increased to know that every one of them were negroes, caught with the animals in their possession. We get this information from an undoubted source.

The owners of the animals have actually had the hardihood to claim their property and take it from the thieves. We suppose Gov. Holden will take immediate steps to avenge this "rebel outrage," by largely increasing the number of Bozier's squad.—Jour. Com.

DEATH OF A BRIDE.—It is with feelings of no ordinary sadness that we record the death of Mrs. Junius Smith, of Danville, the accomplished daughter of R. B Watt, Esq., of Yanceyville. The marriage of this young lady to Mr. Smith, of Danville, was announced in this paper but a few weeks ago. She died, as we learn, of typhoid fever, at the residence of her affectionate parents in Yanceyville, whither she was taken from Danville, when the disease first attacked her.—Milton Chronicle.

The storms of last week throughout Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska caused a large amount of damage to railroads, bridges and other property. A large portion of the track of the St. Joseph and Council Bluffs road washed away and three bridges badly damaged. A bridge on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad was carried away, delaying trains. A store at Columbus, Neb., was blown down and a man named Preston was killed.

GENERAL NEWS.

Republican papers concede New York to the Democrats next fall.

Mississippi expects a $40,000,000 cotton crop.

Andy Johnson speaks in Greenville, Tennessee, July 5.

Geo. Peabody will be seventy-five years old in February.

The St. Louis Evening Post, three months in existence, has suspended publication.

A Chicago youth of fourteen years stabbed and killed a comrade of thirteen on Sunday.

Gen. Alvin P. Hovey, United States Minister to Peru, is at home, in Indianapolis, on a three months' leave.

Of the 1,200 convicts in the Illinois State prison, 300 are members of the Y. M. C. A. which has been started there.

The London Metropolitan railway is now 7½ miles long, dispatches 368 trains, carrying 110,000 passengers daily, the fares reaching $4,000.

The lives of all the members of the Chicago Fire Department were Saturday insured for $2,000, by subscription, by the business men of the city.

President Grant telegraphed to St. Louis Monday that he and his family would visit St. Louis during the latter part of this week.

Mr. Gilmore made a house worth $25,000 and at least $25,000 in cash out of the Boston peace jubilee. The latter sum was the proceeds of a benefit on Tuesday.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, for the State of Virginia will convene in Richmond on the 17th of July next.

The entire available force at the Milwaukee depot were recently scratching their heads in despair over the following painted destination on a big immigrant ark: "Max Zeilneisertriss—Nord. U. States amerka! Dlu-Itch n Iwa by Bremenandnewyurk.

A California lawyer recently, after stating a proposition, said, "May it please your Honor, I'll bet a hundred dollars and stake the money that what I said is good law." The attorney on the other side declined to bet, and the argument was admitted by the Court to be unanswerable.

Col. John J. McKinnon, a prominent turfman of Chicago, has purchased from parties in England, the celebrated race horse Broomielaw, by Stockwell, out of Queen Mary, and will soon bring him to this country. He paid $7,500 for him.

At a Mobile Episcopal Church, after the collection all the contributors rise, and the pastor consecrates the offering with prayer. Everybody gives something.

Tuesday, workmen commenced laying a direct through telegraph line from Selma, viz. Rome, Knoxville and Washington City, to New York. Messages will pass over the completed line within two months.

The distillers of Kentucky meet in Convention at the Phœnix Hotel, Lexington, on the 1st of July, to take into consideration the best course to pursue to have the restrictions removed which are now bearing so heavily upon them.

Two hundred and sixty-six ladies have petitioned the Connecticut Legislature, praying that no amendment of the Constitution may be made which shall grant the right of suffrage to women.

Georgia gold mining operations are said to be in a more healthy condition than ever before. The Hamilton mill is crushing about seventy-five tons of ore daily, with twenty four stamps. The Yahoola Company are building an aqueduct at Dahlonega. A new mill is going up on the Etowall, below Auralia, and all the mills, it is stated, are doing well.

Some indication of the number of persons who, for some cause, have left White Pine is afforded by the fact that there are 4,000 letters remaining uncalled for at the express office in Treasure City.

M. D. Williams, a railroad ticket agent, of Buffalo, absconded with some $2,000, belonging to different roads. He took passage on the Lake Shore road for Erie, Pa., and is supposed to be making tracks for California.

The New Hampshire Historical Society unanimously passed a resolution censuring the Secretary of the Navy for changing the names of certain government vessels. The resolution, in effect, claims that it was a wrong act to take from vessels American names and substitute others of European and mythological origin thus disassociating the vessels from objects calculated to perpetuate their glory.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Revenue to-day $841,000. The debt statement shows a decrease of sixteen and a half millions. The total coin interest due to-day is thirty-one millions.

Secretary Rawlins is at Gettysburg.

Treasury receipts for the past forty-eight hours are six millions, which will unexpectedly swell the decrease of the debt.

The debt statement shows an indebtedness bearing coin interest two thousand two hundred millions; currency interest, sixty-six millions; no interest $416,500,000; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, five millions; coin in the treasury, seventy-nine and three quarter millions; coin certificates thirty and a half millions; currency, thirty-seven millions. The Secretary of the Treasury directs the assistant Treasurer at New York to purchase not exceeding three millions of dollars worth of bonds Saturday next, to be held by the Treasury department subject to the future action of Congress.

The Chilian President accepts the mediations of the United States between Chili and Spain.

A large meeting of Cuban sympathizers at Lima, Peru, adopted resolutions urging the Peruvian government to send a monitor to aid the Cubans.

The yellow fever is rapidly disappearing from Peru.

The Costa Rica Congress has confirmed the contract with Americans for an inter-oceanic railroad from Lima to the gulf of Tonuica.

Among the Cubans overhauled and captured are parties bailed to keep the peace aggregating $75,000. Col. Ryan and a large number are still missing. New York papers convey the impression that the entire expedition failed. Among the American officers captured were Cols Bryan and Keats, Majors O'Leary and Courtney, and Captains T. F. O'Neil, Wm. H. Lindsey, Kearns, Martins, McCue, Lindsey, Simonson, Gibes, Tom Masterdon, Dixon, Hear, Harris and several others, all of whom had acquired a reputation as brave officers in our late war.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The Revenue Cutter "Mahoning," yesterday afternoon, captured the last fillibustering boat, the "Chase," with seventy-five men aboard; also the schooner "Fanny Winona," with brass field pieces, sabres and ammunition. All the vessels are now at the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

The "Alaska" brings Aspinwall dates to the 23rd, and $67,000 in specie. The Columbian Congress adjourned after declining to ratify American and British treaties for inter-oceanic canals.

Two thousand laborers are employed on the inter-oceanic Railroad.

FROM NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—A congressional committee is here investigating the conduct of last November elections in this city and State. The committee consists of Stevenson, of Ohio, Burdett, of Missouri, and Kerr, of Indiana. It will adjourn to-day, the last witness examined being Gov. Warmouth. The committee has been in session continually for two months, sitting generally seven or eight hours daily. It has examined some five hundred witnesses from every quarter of the State and embracing five contested election cases. The most important part of the testimony relates to the disturbances in this city, the parishes of St Landry, Bossr and St Bernard. Much of it relates to the secret order known as the "Knights of the White Camelia." The testimony covers some ten thousand manuscript pages, equal to two thousand printed pages.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

GETTYSBURG, July 1.—There was an immense crowd in attendance to-day upon the ceremonies of dedicating the monument at the national cemetery on the battle-field. The ceremonies proceeded according to programme.

GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, July 1.—Thermometer at 3 o'clock, 99 in shade.

DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, July 1.—An explosion at Dupont's powder mills to-day killed two men

FROM CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Sacramento City received Mr Seward with a salute of fifty guns and flying flags. Both parties participated in the reception.

The Democratic Convention passed resolutions denouncing the fifteenth amendment.

FROM WILMINGTON, N. C.

WILMINGTON, July 1.—Arrived, 'Fairbanks' and 'Volunteer,' from New York.

Weather sultry; wind S. W. Thermometer 88.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, July 1.—The Cortes has rejected the bill increasing the duty on Cereals.

LONDON, July 1.—Increase of bullion in the Bank of England is one hundred and eighty-four thousand pounds.

MARKETS.

WILMINGTON, July 1.—Spirits Turpentine half a cent higher at 38. Rosin shade higher, $1,70 to $4. Crude Turpentine $2,65 to $3. Tar steady at $2,25.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Cotton less active but firm. sales 2,900 bales at 34½. Flour, wheat and corn firm at noon's advance. Pork lower; new $32 a $34. Lard shade easier; kettle 19½ a 20. Whiskey steady, 98½ Groceries dull. Naval stores quiet. Freights firmer.

LIVERPOOL, July 1.—Evening—Cotton closed a shade firmer. Uplands 12¼, Orleans 12¾. Sales 12,000 bales.

Breadstuffs firmer. Naval stores dull Others unchanged.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The Cubans here have the following advices:

After the Spaniards were repulsed at Cinconillas District, they were reinforced by two thousand troops, making the Spanish forces double those of the Cubans, and compelling the Cubans to retreat. Eighty-five Cubans, including several Americans, were captured, whom Lesca shot.

Nearly all the large plantations in Cinconillas District were destroyed.

It is stated that the Cubans are concentrating to fight Lesca, and news of a decisive battle is daily expected.

The Cubans are uneasy at not hearing from Gen. Jordan.

Grant, in an interview with Edwards and other Georgians, said that having made appointments for Augusta and Macon Post Offices, he was indisposed to change them until the incumbents proved incompetent.

During this interview Grant gave no indication that he was considering the political status of Georgia.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Puerto Principe advices of the 22nd of June, represent the condition of the Spanish troops as dreadful. The hospitals were full. Ten deaths daily.

A foraging party of one hundred and fifty strong were driven into the city.

The Cubans captured one hundred regulars at the first station, from Principe. One regiment of volunteers has two hundred sick.

FROM GETTYSBURG.

GETTYSBURG, July 2, M.—Gen. Meade in his speech, urges decent burial for the Confederates.

Morton, the orator of the day, speaking of Cuba, said: "She is making a bold, vigorous, and we trust, a successful effort, to throw off the Spanish yoke and to establish her independence." He also said: "In the field before us are the graves of the rebel dead, now sunk to the level of the plain, unmarked, unhonored, and unknown. They were our countrymen, of our blood, language and history; they displayed a courage worthy of their country and a better cause, and we may drop a tear to their memory. The news of this fatal field carried agony to thousands of Southern homes, and the wail of despair was heard in the everglades and orange groves of the South!"

FOREIGN

LONDON, July 2.—Advices from the coast of Africa report the arrival at Fernando Po of two hundred and fifty political prisoners from Havana.

MADRID, July 2.—The Cortes has passed the Revenue budget and authorized the Government to spend whatever sum is necessary.

READ WHAT THE

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD will be given by its bereaved Mother, for his safe return. Was missing from home on the 6th of October, 1865, and nothing has since been heard direct from him, but information has been received that such a little Boy was seen to pass through Oxford, in the possession of a wagoner, and is now supposed to be in Granville, Person, Orange, Guilford, Rockingham, N. C., or Halifax County, Va. When taken away he was four years old, a beautiful fair skin, blue-eyed boy. Kind reader, is there such a boy in the family of any wagoner in your neighborhood?

THE COQUETTE.

BY JOHN G. SAXE

"You're clever at drawing, I own,"
Said my beautiful cousin Lisette,
As we sat by the window alone;
"But say, can you paint a coquette?"

"She's paint d already," quoth I;
"Nay, nay!" said he laughing Lisette;
"Now, none of your joking, but try
And paint me a thorough coquette."

"Well, cousin," at once I began
In the car of the eager Lisette,
"I'll paint you as well as I can
That wonderful thing, a coquette."

"She wears a most beautiful face,
("Of course," said the pretty Lisette,)
And isn't deficient in grace,
Or else she were not a coquette,"

"And then she is daintily made
(A smile from the dainty Lisette,)
By people expert in the trade
Of forming a proper coquette."

She's the winningest ways with the beaux,
("Go on," said the winning Lisette,)
But there isn't a man of them knows
The mind of the fickle coquette.

"She knows how to weep and to sigh,
(A sigh from the tender Lisette,)
But her weeping is all in my eye—
Not that of the cunning coquette!

"In short, "she's a creature of art—"
("O hush!") said the frowning Lisette,
"With merely the ghost of a heart—
Enough for a thorough coquette.

"There—do not be angry—you know,
My dear little cousin Lisette,
You told me a moment ago
To paint you—a thorough coquette."

SIDNEY H. ROGERS,
JAMES H. FOOTE,
L. C LATHAM,
Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars, comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents teat already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.

For further description and particulars, address

JOHN SKINNER,

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual be Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	693
" New England Mutual,	543
" Phœnix Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 479 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,260	"
And in its 20th year,	2,862	"

this latter being 630 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.
